

* ▲
6. Adjectifs courts ou adjectifs longs? Mettez l'adjectif entre parenthèses au comparatif de supériorité ou bien au superlatif de supériorité selon le sens de l'énoncé. Rajoutez THAN si nécessaire.

1. It's (easy) task I've ever had to do.
2. Isn't the entrance (narrow) it used to be?
3. She's (famous) actress in the world.
4. He's one of (nice) people I know.

5. Didn't you find anything (simple) that?
6. I feel (tired) yesterday.

* ▲
7. Mettez l'adjectif entre parenthèses au comparatif de supériorité ou d'égalité ou bien au superlatif de supériorité selon le sens de l'énoncé. Rajoutez AS ou THAN si nécessaire à l'endroit qui convient.

1. Today Ethiopia is still one of the world's (poor) states and by far (large) in that category. With a population that has doubled in 30 years, Ethiopia is getting (poor) year by year. Ethiopia is even (poor) Mali. Only 42% of the children are enrolled at primary school, which is (low) rate in Africa.
2. Across the nation, Americans are being choked by one of (bad) droughts (sécheresse) anyone can remember. According to experts, only two others in the last 100 years have been (bad). The current drought is (hard) time anyone in Nebraska can remember.
3. Britain's rich are (healthy) ever before and they are living (long). But life expectancy for some groups of the poor appears to be far (bad) it was 40 years ago. In poor areas, death rates among men aged 45-54 are much (high) in rich areas.

**
8. Complétez avec MORE, MOST ou THE MOST (voir aussi Gr: 25R4).

1. According to ... recent calculations, the planet has warmed by 0.6 of a degree in the last century, and ... of this rise has taken place in the last decade.
2. Agriculture is responsible for ... than 25% of water pollution.
3. ... scientists say that we have already used ... of our coal reserves.
4. Even ... cautious climate researchers are worried about the future of our planet.

**
9. Mettez l'adjectif entre parenthèses au comparatif de supériorité ou au superlatif de supériorité selon le sens de l'énoncé.

1. The (clear) your objectives are, the (good).
2. She's the (young) of the two daughters.
3. She's the (bad) manager we've ever had.
4. The (old) she gets, the (troublesome) she becomes.
5. The (dangerous) it is, the (happy) she is.